Truth #1 The Greatest Commandment

Nothing in life matters more than knowing and loving God.

1. How did Jesus describe “eternal life,” and what does that say about God’s role in our daily existence? Do you like His definition of life, or are there times when you’d rather be left alone? Explain.
2. What kind(s) of knowledge does God want us to have of Him? Why? Would you say you are “close” to Him? Explain.
3. Do we live as if relating to Him is more important than anything else we do? Why or why not?

Truth #2 Thee and Me

Only by relating to God can we discover who we are.

1. What would you know about yourself and your purpose for living if God had not first revealed Himself to you?
2. How does relating intimately to God help you understand yourself? Your neighbor? Your culture?

Truth #3 The Bible Tells Me So

We must study God’s Word in order to understand more about His nature and to “gaze into His face.”

1. Why has God’s written word always been under intense attack by the world? What are some recent examples you’ve observed?
2. Do you hunger and thirst for more knowledge of God through studying and obeying the Scriptures—or do you often feel as though you’ve “been there, done that”? Why? What would you like to do differently?
